

Slovakian workshop

CLOSING THE GENDER PAY GAP IN PUBLIC SERVICES IN THE CONTEXT OF AUSTERITY

Online workshop, 16 June 2020; 10:00 – 13:00 CET

Agenda

Welcome

Marta Kahancová, Managing Director, Central European Labour Studies Institute

10:00 – 10:10

Introduction of the project

Barbora Holubová, Researcher, Central European Labour Studies Institute

10:10 – 10:20

Statistical profile related to gender pay gap in the Central and Eastern European Member States

Jakub Kostolný, Research, Central European Labour Studies Institute

Case studies presentations

10:20 – 10:30

Poland: Nurses in their fight for a pay increase

Barbora Holubová, Researcher, CELSI

10:35 – 10:50

Hungary: Putting the gender pay gap on the agenda

Alíz Kiss-Rigó, Vice president of the Women Committee, Hungarian Trade Union Confederation (MASZSZ)

10:50 – 11:00

Slovakia: Pay increase in public sector by collective agreement

Barbora Holubová, Researcher, CELSI

11:00 – 11:15

Poland: Teachers in their fight for a pay increase

Tomasz Gajderowicz, Assistant Professor, University of Warsaw

11:15 – 11:25

Romania: Empowerment of women - a precondition of closing gender pay gap

Barbora Holubová, Researcher, CELSI

11:30 – 11:45

Slovakia: Nurses and midwives in action

Iveta Lazorová, President, Slovakian Chamber of Nurses and Midwives, Slovakia

11:45 – 11:55

Austria: Transparency policies

Barbora Holubová, Researcher CELSI

12:00 – 12:15

Examples of cases from the Northern and Western EU countries

Sian Moore, Director, CREW, University of Greenwich, United Kingdom

12:15 – 12:30

Examples of cases from the Southern EU countries

Margherita Roiatti, Research Fellow, Claudia Carchio, Collaborator, ADAPT, Italy

12:30 – 12:50

Discussion

12:50 – 13:00

Summary and conclusion of the workshop

Barbora Holubová, Central European Labour Studies Institute